

Summer School In Phenomenology 2001 -- Application:

The application (which can be sent electronically or by mail) should consist of the following:

- (1) basic personal information (there is a form at the end of this text),
- (2) a brief letter stating what sort of work have you done in phenomenology already and what more you plan to do, and
- (3) a letter of recommendation.

You can add a sample of your work in philosophy (in English, German, French, Czech, Slovak, Polish, or Russian) - please notice this is optional.

The application should arrive before May 31, 2001.

Participants will be selected no later than June 11, and we shall send you the information immediately.
